

About Wanda Burger, LPCS, NCC, LCAS, CCS, ICCS, ICCADC

Wanda, a former nurse, returned to school and received a master's of counseling from Gannon University in 2003. She began working in mental health in 1982 as a psychiatric nurse. In 1997 she returned to college and achieved a MS. Since then she has worked with substance abuse, mental health and dual diagnosis. She is an advanced trauma specialist through NCCTP and the National Trauma Network, is a NBCC Trainer and approved for trainings through NCSAPPB. She is certified in Prime for Life, Solutions and as a driver's license evaluator. She has owned her own practices and has contracted as a clinical supervisor and clinical director for several CABHAs in North Carolina and currently supervises several clinicians for licensing.

Thursday, September 15, 2016 1-5pm
"Co-Occurring Disorders"

Learning Objectives: Navigating Dual Diagnosis

Recognize the occurrence of co-occurring disorders, signs and symptoms, identify models of treatment and how to apply.

Learner Types; Behavioral Health Professionals, Correction Officers, Social Service Providers, Supervisors and Managers, School Professionals, Ministers, nurses, and Public leaders